DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1, 3-7, 9-13, and 15-21 are allowed over prior art of record. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Sinai et al. (USPN 7143042) disclose a computer-implemented graphical design tool that allows a user to graphically author a dialog flow for use in a voice response system and to graphically create an operational link between hypermedia page and a speech object, which defines a spoken dialog interaction between a person and machine. The user can graphically define a dialog a sequence of speech objects by using the drag-and-drop interface. The user can create a link between a property of any speech object and any field of a web page, to voice-enable the web page (referring to the abstract section). Sibal et al. (USPN 7210098) teach the method of creating HTML and VXML content that indicates a correspondence between HTML and VXML pages that contains specialized tags that indicate information to be sent from one browser to the other to synchronize each browser to equivalent parts of the content (referring to abstract section). Saini et al. and Sibal et al. fail to specifically disclose that at least one second icon corresponds to a hyperlink to a linkable voice XML file; receiving user selection input of said icons to add one or more hyperlinks to one or more linkable voice XML files; recording an action stream of a user invoking said icons in the graphic user interface; interpreting said action stream based on a library of voice XML tags and generating voice XML tags for said content; and generating a voice XML file by combining the generated voice XML tags and the content stream including at least one hyperlink to a linkable voice XML file, wherein, upon listener hyperlink input to the generated voice XML file, audio accessed through said hyperlink is automatically delivered to said listener. Furthermore, it would have not been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to modify Saini et al. and/or Sibal et al. in order to obtain the claimed invention. Therefore, claims 1, 3-7, 9-13, and 15-21 are allowed over prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
